

O4Ria

For Editors

O4Ria is the recorded-music project of Amanda and Peter, founders of the adult site Orgasmaphoria. They write concepts and lyrics for erotic, kink, and intimacy music. Generative software synthesizes the performances. They did not set out to be a band. They needed a soundtrack for real scenes — then released it.

WHY THIS DESK

Most AI-music coverage is hype or scandal. This one is documented: they publish what the humans do, what the model does, and where the model failed (a trance pass that became a Celtic drinking song; a requested British DJ ad-lib that came out “Amanda wants a Banger”). The records are built as tools for adult play, not as a conventional artist career. That is the story. Not a discography dump.

LISTEN FIRST · ABOUT 16 MINUTES · THIS ORDER

1 Strength to Yield

7:09 · Pleasure Beats & Country Heat · 10 July 2026

Chosen submission. Country phrasing over an electronic pulse the software pushed further than planned. Working title for the album was Country Kink. I hold the fire in my hands, but you control the flame.

2 Dirty Talk

4:02 · Dirty Talk EP · 22 July 2026

Getting-ready music, not mid-scene. Words as the spark on the way to an event. Six versions exist; this is the public one. The buried first cut is the failed ad-lib Amanda wants a Banger.

3 Rewrite My Story

4:47 · Surrender · 27 June 2026

From the first public album. Ask for a lyric sheet and background notes for your assignment.
